Betty was a wonderful person and a sweet lady she and my Grandma Ethel Brown worked at the Newman Center every Wednesday helping with lunches. She was so special to every one. She will be missed greatly by all her friends and family. Debbie Lomshek May the peace of Christ be with her family during this sad time.

Our mother Frances often brought "Shooter" (as we knew her) to different events my sisters' and I were going to such as craft shows, eating out or whatever was on the agenda for that day. We so enjoyed Shooters' sense of humor as we all always gave Frances trouble about her constant to-go boxes of food....I will always remember (and will especially miss) Shooters' sly wink, onery smile, and wonderful laugh!!! Sister Kelly reminded me tonight that she had told Shooter she wished she was our mother!!! Just to tease Frances.....
