Deacon Lough was a wonderful man through and through. He was kind, very kind and that is a commodity not found this day in times. He was right with God always. Jokes, kindness, a wonderful smile and he was sincere. He and I were great buddies. I did not know of his passing until yesterday. My computer was down and I didn't know. I certainly wish I could have gone to the funeral. Jim was the best man I ever met through and through. He was as he was, and that was a fantastic man. I am a much better person by knowing him. God chose the best of the lot when He took Jim. Jim I will miss you and so till we meet again. Love you always Mary Dell/Stevie
