Rick was a larger-than-life personality who loved to make people laugh. I will always remember his charm and the way he would try to gross the kids out with some story - usually about hunting or game. I know he was sick at the end, and I wish you peace now in your rest, Rick.

Uncle Rick radiated warmth and love. He always had a ready smile and a twinkle in his eyes. Just being near him felt like a hug, even if he was on the other side of the room. The world lost a good and caring soul.
