

Imogene Sandella

April 13, 1928 - November 28, 2018

Imogene (Scroggins) Sandella was 90 years young when she passed over on November 28, 2018 in Tulsa, OK. Born Friday, April 13, 1928 to Lola and Clarence Scroggins, she brought good luck to everyone around her. Growing up north of Columbus, Kansas she was known as the female partner in a prize-winning dance couple nicknamed the “Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers of Scammon, KS.” After high school, Imogene married Louie Sandella on June 18, 1948 and they raised three children Deb, Dee and Gregg Sandella.

Imogene graduated from Pittsburg State College, and worked her way up from the accounting office at Maude Norton Hospital to hospital administrator. During these years when most small town hospitals couldn't survive financially, Imogene earned a Robert Wood Johnson grant that saved Maude Norton.

Imogene was passionately committed to do her best whether that was keeping the hospital open or raising her children. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother with a gentle soul and generous heart. She had an ageless tenderness that touched everyone around her. Her sense of humor blossomed with age and until the very end, she brought smiles and laughter to family and caretakers.

Imogene joins those who preceded her in death: parents Lola and Clarence Scroggins, brother Bob Scroggins and husband Louie Sandella.

She is forever in the hearts of those who survive her: adult children Deb Sandella and husband Dick Fullerton (Denver, CO), Dee Sandella (Denver, CO) Gregg Sandella and Donna Yaffe (Tulsa, OK); grandchildren Walker and wife Jessica Fullerton (Brooklyn Heights, NY), Lindsey and husband Justin Greer (Tulsa, OK), Nick and wife Cyrena Sandella (Tulsa, OK), Michael Booz (San Francisco, CA), Elena Fullerton (Sydney, Australia), and Savannah Booz (Manhattan, NY); great-grandchildren Emerson Greer (Tulsa, OK), Knox Greer (Tulsa, OK), and Everett Fullerton (Brooklyn Heights, NY).

“ Dear Debbie, Deanna, and Greg; my condolences on the loss of Aunt Imogene. I said a prayer for her at mass this morning. I know today and tomorrow will be stressful for you all. I wish I could be there when you celebrate her life, but with my wife's present state of health I cannot hardly get out of the Houston area. Remembering you in my prayers, your cousin, Mike

“ Reading the obituary brings tears and smiles. I have so many memories of laughter and love. Imogene was quite a lady. From a small child I looked up to her and through the years my respect grew even greater. She was a gift to all of us.
