“ My memories of Aunt Nancy were always sweet ones. She always sat and listened to everyone and when she spoke it was so very soft..and that lil giggle she would have when I would tell her to keep Uncle Hubert in line...she was sweet as an angel

Enjoy heaven lovely lady!

“ Aunt Nan became my aunt 45 years ago when I married into this huge amazing loving family. All the aunts and uncles were welcoming, but the "inlaws" more so, it seemed to me once I finally got them sorted out. Such a quiet gentle woman that I loved to talk to at the family gatherings.
